SHOOT'S YOUNG WOMAN.

CHICAGO, Dec. 28.—At the hour which he had appointed to eat Christmas dinner with his wife, Sidney Lynden Roberts visited Ella Noreen and after shooting her twice, turned his revolver upon himself and inflicted what probably will prove a mortal wound. The girl possibly will recover. The shooting was the culmination of an acquaintance which began last June. Although living with his wife, Roberts insisted that Miss Noreen had agreed to marry him and her refusal to do so was assigned by him as the cause of the shooting.

The Wassail Bowl.

The wassail bowl has been regarded as the property of Christmas, but it is really a New Year custom. It was the custom of our ancestors to drink the old year out and the New Year in in a bowl of liquor, which came to be called the wassail bowl from the exclamation "Waes hael!" ("Be in health") of every toper as he lifted it to his lips. The bowl was passed round from guest to guest, all drinking from it in token of the good will and happiness with which the New Year opened. From the wassail bowl came the "loving cup," which still figures at the banquets of London guilds.

Hard Boiled Eggs as Fortune Tellers. The girl who would know what her future husband will be like should eat a hard boiled egg—in which salt takes the place of the yolk—immediately before going to bed New Year's eve. If she is brave enough to do this, she will dream that some one brings her water to quench her thirst, the face being that of the man she will marry.

A GREAT DISCOVERY.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Cal., Dec. 28.—A discovery which will have great important results in the world of science was made public today by Professor George Hump, of Stanford, in a course of a lecture before the Stanford Phytology Association. The key to the ancient inscriptions on Etruscan Tombs and columns, so long a mystery to science, have been discovered by Stanford's professor of phytology, according to a statement made by him today.

The Daily Market Report

PORTLAND, eDec. 28.—Whether the onion growers of this state will market their crop this season in the usual way, the individual producers acting for themselves, or dispose of the product as a whole through an agent, or agents, appointed by the federated growers, may be decided today.

Representatives of the Federated Onion Growers' Association from all districts where this crop is grown in a commercial way have arranged to meet in this city this afternoon, at the office of President Fanno of the association, to discuss the matter from all points of view and take final action on the scheme proposed for the disposition of the 1908 crop.

"There is no poultry market today," was the comment of a Front-street dealer. "The turkeys are gone, and the demand also. We still have plenty of chickens, ducks and geese, but the retailers are not in the market to buy stuff that would have to be carried over to Monday, so there is nothing doing. For the time, I can see nothing to warrant any changes from the last quotations on any line."

Oregon ranch eggs were quoted at 40 to 42 cents on the street today, but in some quarters weakness was reported and some dealers held that it would be difficult to move even the moderate stocks on hand at better than 40 cents. Easterns still comprise the bulk of the supply.

Guilty of Counterfeiting. Passing counterfeit money is no worse than substituting some unknown worthless remedy for Foley's Honey and Tar, the great cough and cold remedy that cures the most obstinate coughs and heals the lungs.

Foley's Orino Laxative cures chronic constipation and stimulates the liver. Orino regulates the bowels so they will act naturally and you do not have to take purgatives continuously." T. F. Laurin, Owl Drug Store.

Mrs. McRaney's Experience. Mrs. M. McRaney, Prentiss, Miss., writes: "I was confined to my bed for three months with kidney and bladder trouble, and was treated by two physicians but failed to get relief. No human tongue can tell how I suffered, and I had given up hope of ever getting well until I began taking Foley's Remedy. After taking two bottles I felt like a new person, and feel it my duty to tell suffering women what Foley's Kidney Remedy did for me." T. F. Laurin, Owl Drug Store.
